

Local and Personal

Dr. H. S. Myers is on the sick list this week.

J. R. Benson of Paywood transacted business in our town a few days this week.

Mrs. Dwyer and her daughter Miss Julia Miller of Dwyer were Deming visitors last Friday and Saturday.

Do you like the clear print of the Graphic? That new type and good press work gives the same result on job work.

The sad news comes from El Paso that Leon Smith, a former Deming boy, was run over by a Trolley car and killed about 11 o'clock last Sunday night. We have not learned any particulars.

Mrs. C. H. Brown went to El Paso Monday to attend the funeral of her brother Leon Smith, who was killed by a street car Sunday night.

Hon. W. M. Taylor, and Justice of the Peace, Oscar Taylor, of Paywood are in town this week serving on the grand jury.

Judge Pennington and attorney Temke moved into their new office in the Mahoney building just across Spruce St., from their former quarters.

It is not because our prices are cheaper than our competitors that our job department is crowded with work all the time, but because the work we do pleases our customers.

Navajo Bill and the badger had a mixup the other day when the badger was on a toot and Navajo came out second best, as the badger bit him on the leg causing a severe wound.

W. R. Merrill moved the fittings out of the old offices of the E. P. & S. W. to the S. P. offices Monday and the building thus vacated will be used by Mr. J. H. Allison as a saloon.

Major Wambaugh who transacted business in our town a few days last week left for St. Louis Friday morning to attend a meeting of the officers of the Sanitarium Association.

If you like the appearance of our paper give us a trial on job work. Don't it stand to reason that the material and workmanship that get a clear print on the paper would do so on other work.

As we go to press the news comes from Clifton Arizona that a terrible cloud-burst visited that place last evening, destroying large amounts of property and at the latest reports twenty persons were missing.

P. J. Bennett, editor of the Clifton Herald, and formerly of this town came in Friday evening and spent several days with his family who have not yet moved to their new home.

Dr. P. M. Stead has placed his office furniture into the office recently vacated by Judge Pennington and Attorney Temke and is now ready to answer the calls of the public.

Mrs. Gilbert and her sister Miss Grace Brown, left Monday for Las Vegas where they will spend the summer. They have the Graphic sent to them so as to have reliable news of Deming happenings.

The Clifton ball team will be here next Sunday to play the Yellow Kids and it is expected that a good game be played, and a request is made for all lovers of sport to come out and see it.

We extend thanks to our friend Jose D. Sena, clerk of the Supreme Court of New Mexico, for a neat little book giving the time of terms of the Supreme and District courts of the territory. It is of convenient size for the vest pocket and very handy for reference.

The consolidation of the E. P. & S. W. and Southern Pacific has done away with the signal tower at the crossing just west of town, as the Southwestern trains now come in over the S. P. track thus leaving Dan Hathway a gentleman of leisure for a few days.

District Court in Session.

Owing to the Santa Fe train being delayed, Judge Parker and the other court officials did not arrive in time to call court Monday, so yesterday was the first day of the term. ### Farwell Sermon.

Last Sunday morning Rev. J. H. MacBenn, former pastor of the Presbyterian church here, preached at the Methodist church from the text, "Did not I see thee in the garden with him." The sermon was one of rare spirituality and power, and illustrated the various ways in which Christians at the present time deny Christ in their daily lives.

Rev. MacBenn came from California where he attended the assembly of Presbyterian ministers at Los Angeles, and resumed his journey east on Monday. He has the prayers and best wishes of the Christian people of all denominations here in whatever field he may be called to do the Masters work.

In Memoriam.

On Sunday last, June 7, the mortal remains of Albert P. Taylor, one of Luna county's noblest citizens, were laid to rest in the Deming cemetery. The funeral cortege moved slowly through our streets a sad and solemn procession. Those attending were but a few of his many earnest and sincere friends, among them were men who had been with Al in times of prosperity as well as adversity. There were in the funeral party men of years who having been interested with the deceased in the early days of Cooks Peak mining district digging in the soil with him, living with him in camp and learning to love him and regard him as a brother rather than simply as a mining partner and all for his natural goodness and kindness of heart.

Al Taylor was a miner whose cabin door was always open to those who were less fortunate than himself, he always had a cheering word and a whole souled welcome for the belated traveler. He was an inspiration to his fellow miners, cheering them up after a days work the showing of the claim did not betoken success in the finding of underground riches. Al was a man whom if he could not speak a good word for his neighbor would not speak any evil of him. He was one of that blessed kind that man likes to have in his presence and seemed to cast a ray of sunshine in his community. At the creation of Luna county his was one of the first names mentioned for the appointment as a commissioner of the new county, his health which for about four years past had failed him prevented his acceptance and his name was not sent in.

During the past year, on account of his continued ill health he could do no work and was kept to his cabin but in that time he thought and studied and the book most dear to him was the "Old Bible," and with his departing strength, away off in the shade of old Cooks Peak, far from loved relatives he turned his thoughts to other days and took comfort in the great truths revealed to him by the Book of Books and so as his strength gradually left him he turned his thoughts, never complaining, to the future life and it is safe to say when the summons came so suddenly it found him prepared to meet his Maker in the Promised Land. At the funeral his favorite song, "I Am Bound for the Promised Land," was sung by his friends as they stood with tearful eyes around his bier. Thus departed one of Nature's Noblemen.

Ladies and Children Invited.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous Little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken; many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy.—Sold by J. P. BYRON & SON.

Mrs. A. H. Thompson very pleasantly entertained our Sunday school yesterday afternoon at an ice cream supper.

Cures When Doctors Fail.

Mrs. Frank Chaisson, Patterson, La., writes June 8th, 1901: "I had malaria fever in a very bad form, was under treatment of doctors, but as soon as I stopped taking their medicine the fever would return. I used a sample bottle of Herbine, found it helped me. Then I bought two bottles, which completely cured me. I feel grateful to you for furnishing such a splendid medicine, and can honestly recommend it to those suffering from malaria, as it will surely cure them." Herbine 50c bottle at J. P. Byron and Son.
